Bank Account Class

Bank Account Class

The bank account class represents one bank account.

Attributes

- `customer_name:` string

- `acct_numb:` int

- `date:` string

- `balance:` float

Methods

- `__str__():` return a string representation.

- `deposit():` update the balance of the account, tell the user the amount of the deposit

- `withdraw():` update the balance on the account. Do not allow the user to withdraw more than they have in the account

- `check_balance():` show the user the balance.

- `days_since_opened():` show the user how many days have passed since this account has been opened

- `print_acct_details():` print name, account number, date of opening and balance to a separate textfile, 'customer_details.txt